Yes, I noticed that mistake. Not sure who controls the money. I think Exide still has access to it.

Yes, good.

Grammar fix needed:

* Prior to the closure of the facility, EPA issued a Notice of Violation to Exide for excessive lead emissions on May 22, 2014, and ~~en~~ conducted a thorough RCRA hazardous waste inspection in August 2014.

Who controls the $50 million fund?

Thanks.

I am working today only until 3:00pm as I have an outside medical appointment, so if it could be pulled together no later than 2:30pm today, I can send on. Or if it comes in after that, please share with Bill Keener and Kelly Zito who can send on to Nicole Distefano in OCIR. Thanks much.
